

LAURIUS

ANTWERP - BRUSSELS

Corporate and M&A Lawyer

Our Corporate/M&A practice group in Brussels is hiring.

We are looking for a true team player to strengthen our Corporate/M&A practice. You will be involved in all aspects of corporate transactions (ranging from due diligence, to drafting and negotiating agreements, to post-closing follow-up) and you will help support our clients, both domestic and international, with all aspects of corporate legal advice.

Profile

- Master's degree in Belgian law;
- Excellent academic track record;
- A minimum of 2 years of relevant working experience as a Corporate/M&A lawyer;
- A perfect command of French and an excellent knowledge of Dutch & English (verbal and written);
- A broad interest in business and topics related to business management;
- Pragmatic legal and business acumen;
- Accurate and results-driven person;
- Teamplayer.

You will work from our office in Brussels, but you will be part of the M&A team with offices in Antwerp and Brussels.

What we offer

Laurius offers the opportunity to be actively involved in challenging transactional work, and to provide advice and legal support on corporate matters to companies, founders, shareholders, boards of directors, executives and committees. Our Corporate/M&A team is led by four partners with each different specializations. Associates work with all partners, allowing them to familiarize themselves with many aspects of the corporate practice.

We expect our associates to approach each matter in an autonomous, organised, proactive and pragmatic manner. We involve associates early in the negotiations, so they see the full picture of the deal and start building their professional network. We coach associates to build their personal reputation as part of an excellent team, while at the same time ensuring support, allowing to further develop themselves personally and professionally.

We offer a competitive compensation package and a dynamic environment in which one can reach her/his full potential.
